

Search for Marcos' wealth: Compromising with cronies

FEB 25, 2016 5:15 PM PHT

PHILIP M. LUSTRE JR.

What the entire world knows after 30 years is a mere fraction, and not the entirety, of the Marcos loot

YOU FEEL

HAPPY

OTHERS FEEL

HAPPY 100%

cooperative among the known Marcos cronies. Unlike other cronies who chose to slug it out with the post-Marcos government, Campos cooperated fully in surrendering the Marcos assets under his name. Marcos used him mainly as caretaker of those illegal assets.

A friend of the dictator, Campos surrendered to the PCGG the 197 titles representing pieces of real estate property in Metro Manila, Rizal, Laguna, Cavite, Bataan and Baguio City, and P250 million ($5.3 million) in cash. The pieces of real estate property have a combined value of over P2.5 billion ($52.5 million). (READ: Recovering Marcos' ill-gotten wealth: After 30 years, what?)

JOIN OUR NEWSLETTER

Fearless reporting delivered to you

ENTER EMAIL ADDRESS *

FOLLOW US

JOIN RAPPLER+ KNOW MORE HERE

CROWDFUNDING

FOUNDING BOARD

RAPPLER BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ABOUT US

MISSION STATEMENT

EDITORIAL STANDARDS AND GUIDELINES

THE TEAM

CONTACT US

PRIVACY STATEMENT

TERMS OF USE

COMMENT MODERATION POLICY